

O Jesus Christ, the Saviour

(LANCASHIRE. 7.6.7.6.D.)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. O Je - sus Christ, the Sa - vour, We on - ly look to Thee ;
 2. Yes, though the temp - est round us Seems safe - ty to de - fy ;
 3. There with what joy re - view - ing Past con - flicts, dan - gers, fears,
 4. Oh, then how loud the cho - rus Shall to Thy name re - sound

'Tis in Thy love and fa - vour Our souls find li - ber - ty.
 Though rocks and shoals sur - round us, And bil - lows swell on high,
 Thy hand our foes sub - du - ing, And dry - ing all our tears ;
 From all at rest be - fore us, From all Thy grace hath found !

While Sa - tan fierce - ly ra - ges, And ship - wreck we might fear,
 Thou dost from all pro - tect us, And cheer us by Thy love ;
 Our hearts with rap - ture burn - ing, The path we shall re - trace,
 One joy - ful song for ev - er Each heart, each lip shall raise,

'Tis this our grief as - suag - es That Thou art al - ways near.
 Thy coun - sels still di - rect us Safe to the rest a - bove.
 Where now our souls are learn - ing The rich - es of Thy grace.
 The praise of our Re - deem - er, Our God and Fa - ther's praise.

Alternate Tunes : Dublin, 67 ; Ellacombe, 78.